This mission directive implements policy guidance in AFD 10-1, Mission Directives, AFI 10-101, Format and Content of Mission Directives, and AFI 38-101, Air Force Organization. It defines the organizations and missions of Air Mobility Command Tanker Airlift Control Center (AMC TACC). Its purpose is to prescribe mission, organization, and processes.

SUMMARY OF REVISIONS

This document is substantially revised and must be completely reviewed.

1. Mission. The AMC TACC operates a mobility center to plan, schedule, and direct organic and commercial contract aircraft executing AMC's worldwide airlift, air refueling and Homeland Defense missions. The responsibilities reflect statements of principal functions performed by the AMC TACC.

2. Command. The AMC TACC is a direct reporting unit assigned to Air Mobility Command.

3. Responsibilities.

- 3.1. Provides mission-tailored, planning and execution weather intelligence to command and control (C2) command staff, and strategic airlift/tanker operations worldwide.
- 3.2. Exercises command jurisdiction over all assigned personnel.
- 3.3. Manages and executes administrative, training, logistical, security, budget, manpower, and personnel programs.
- 3.4. Manages Joint Airborne/Air Transportability Training (JA/ATT) and Air Refueling Horseblanket Processes.
- 3.5. Directs execution of AMC's airlift and air refueling mission.

- 3.6. Directs scheduled passenger and cargo sustainment airlift and air terminal support to global engagement operations.
- 3.7. Plans, schedules, and executes Global Mobility Task Force personnel and equipment assets to achieve national goals and objectives in support of CJCS-directed operations for wartime, contingencies and humanitarian efforts.
- 3.8. Plans, schedules, and executes tanker and airlift forces in support of the Homeland Defense mission.

ARTHUR J. LICHTER, Major General, USAF
Director of Plans and Programs
